

Just last year, the airport set an annual record when it processed over one million passengers. This new, state-of-the-art concourse will give the airport much-needed space to welcome and process travelers, which will help remove some car traffic on U.S. 1 while giving locals even more nonstop flight options to other parts of the country.

It is my honor to represent Monroe County in the U.S. House of Representatives. Key West is one of the top destinations in the country, and this development project will help even more people experience it for themselves. I applaud all the individuals who worked so hard to make Concourse A reality, and I very much look forward to its completion.

AWARDING CHIEF PETTY OFFICER
JOHN TURNER JR. A CONGRESSIONAL VETERAN COMMENDATION

HON. PAT FALLON

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, November 10, 2022

Mr. FALLON. Madam Speaker, I am honored and privileged to award Chief Petty Officer John Turner Jr. with a Congressional Veteran Commendation. His service and sacrifice through the United States Navy exemplify his national pride and embodiment as a role-model citizen to serve the country he loves. Chief Petty Officer Turner is truly an ideal candidate to receive the Congressional Veteran Commendation.

Chief Petty Officer Turner served in the Navy as a Cryptologic Technician Technical. With such a talented mind in intelligence and cryptology, Chief Petty Officer Turner assisted with airborne, shipborne, and land-based radar signals.

Chief Petty Officer Turner's tenure in the military consisted of time aboard submarines and surface ships in many locations across the world. From Guam, Germany, Japan, and across many stops from sea to shining sea across America, Chief Petty Officer Turner served with no complaint wherever he was deployed.

Chief Petty Officer Turner used his impressive skill set in operating electronic intelligence-receiving and direction-finding systems, digital recording devices, and analysis terminals. American intelligence is the best in the world because of brilliant patriots like Chief Petty Officer Turner.

Since his retirement from the military, Chief Petty Officer Turner has been an active member in the community with active involvement as a Commander in Hunt County Chapter 81 Disabled American Veterans, as a councilman on the Greenville City Council, and as a service officer connecting veteran families to benefits they earned.

I am beyond honored to have Chief Petty Officer Turner in Texas' 4th Congressional District and am privileged to award such a distinguished citizen for his sacrifices.

HONORING JOE KING

HON. FREDERICA S. WILSON

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, November 10, 2022

Ms. WILSON of Florida. Madam Speaker, I rise today as a descendant of Bahamians, to recognize Joe King for his contribution to the City of Miami's designation of the Little Bahamas of Coconut Grove on July 19, 2022.

Since the 19th century, Bahamians played an integral role in the founding of the City of Miami, representing one-third of the registered signatories on July 28, 1896, date of the city's incorporation.

Much like Miami's original Bahamian signatories, Joe King's commitment to preserving the rich Bahamian culture and history of Miami has helped to ensure the designation of the Little Bahamas of Coconut Grove.

Madam Speaker, please join me in honoring Joe King for his contributions to the community and his role in the historic designation of the Little Bahamas of Coconut Grove.

HONORING JANET ARNOLD REES

HON. GREG STANTON

OF ARIZONA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, November 10, 2022

Mr. STANTON. Madam Speaker, I rise to honor the life and legacy of Janet Arnold Rees. Janet was tirelessly devoted to our community and made it a better place to live through her work as a teacher, theatre producer, entrepreneur, and social worker.

Janet and her family moved to Phoenix in 1957, and she quickly immersed herself in the community. It was through her experience in Jewish youth organizations that she learned the value of making connections between people. She believed in the power of a community and made it a constant theme of her work.

Janet had a creative spirit that helped her inspire others, combat anti-Semitism, and create change. In 1988, she founded the award-winning Arizona Jewish Theatre Company, a point of pride in the Valley and where she served as producing director for 24 years. It was a staple in the performing arts scene and produced plays meant to reflect diverse views within Judaism. The AJTC brought people of all walks of life together—from its cast to its audience—and challenged us all to reject hatred.

Even after the AJTC closed its doors, Janet's boundless passion for serving her community continued, and she joined the Jewish Family & Children's Service. It was there that she continued to change peoples' lives by empowering them through resources that gave them stability and peace of mind. Janet worked closely with seniors, and after the COVID-19 pandemic left many isolated, her creativity led seniors to the internet. It helped many reconnect with loved ones and continue to enjoy special moments with their friends and family.

Janet touched so many lives and leaves behind a legacy that will be felt by generations. We join her loved ones in grief and gratitude, thankful we bore witness to her work. Godspeed, Janet.

IN RECOGNITION OF PHILLIP
BERENBROICK AND HIS SERVICE
TO THE HOUSE JUDICIARY COM-MITTEE

HON. JERROLD NADLER

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, November 10, 2022

Mr. NADLER. Madam Speaker, I rise—along with David Cicilline, Chair of the Subcommittee on Antitrust, Commercial, and Administrative Law—to thank Phillip Berenbroick for his service to the Committee on the Judiciary.

Phillip came to the Committee after serving as Policy Director at Public Knowledge. Prior to that, Phillip was the Policy Director at the Internet Freedom Business Alliance, and an attorney at Hogan Lovells US LLP, among other roles. Phillip received his B.A. from Tufts University and his J.D. from the University of Pennsylvania Law School.

Phillip joined the Committee in 2020 as Counsel to our Subcommittee on Antitrust, Commercial, and Administrative Law. For over two years, he played a critical role in advancing the Subcommittee's priorities. As Counsel, Phillip helped develop a breadth of legislation addressing key issues, from tackling the rise and abuse of market power online, to modernizing the Administrative Procedure Act, to supporting local newspapers and broadcasters during the pandemic. His commitment to protecting American consumers and workers was further reflected in his work conducting oversight of federal agencies, as well as investigating mergers that raise significant antitrust concerns.

Phillip was essential in the Subcommittee's 16-month investigation into the state of competition in the digital economy, with a focus on the challenges presented by the dominance of Amazon, Apple, Facebook, and Google. As part of the small team conducting one of the most comprehensive probes into corporate power in the 21st century, Phillip brought his dedicated work ethic as the lead attorney responsible for investigating Apple. He helped review numerous internal documents and communications from the investigated firms; met with antitrust experts; and assisted with interviews of more than 240 market participants, former employees of the investigated firms, and other individuals. His work was critical to much of the Subcommittee's achievements. This included preparing Members for a hearing with the CEOs of Amazon, Apple, Facebook, and Google, and the publication of a Report entitled "Investigation of Competition in Digital Markets: Majority Staff Report and Recommendations," which the Committee on the Judiciary formally adopted in April 2021. He was also instrumental in helping to secure Committee passage of a suite of legislation to restore competition online in June 2021.

Throughout all of his work, Phillip brought his passion for a more just society and his commitment to excellence. Our Committee, Congress, and the American people greatly benefited from his service.

While we will miss Phillip greatly, we are glad he is not going far, and is continuing his career in public service as a Senior Counsel to Senator Robert Menendez of New Jersey.

We thank Phillip Berenbroick for his service to the Committee and wish him the best of luck with this new chapter.
